D.K SINGH., J

W.P© No. 15762 of 2021

Dated this the 11th day of April 2025

ORDER

Mr. E. Balakrishnan, Deputy Superintendent of Police, the Investigating Officer of Crime No. 650 of 2021 and other connected crimes has appeared in the Court, submitted that the final report in Crime No. 302/CB/TSR/D/21 has been submitted in the court concerned today. He further submits that the investigation is taking place at high speed and in respect of the other nineteen crimes registered in respect of the financial fraud committed in the Karuvannoor Service Co-operative Bank scam shall be submitted within a period of three months.

2.The Investigating Officer is directed to investigate the role of all accused, who had been named by the Enforcement Directorate in the ECIR filed by them. The investigating officer may collect the affidavit and copy of the ECIR from Mr. Jayashankar, the learned counsel representing the Enforcement Directorate. The investigating officer is warned against coming under pressure from any political or bureaucratic quarters. He is expected to carry out the investigation in a fair manner without being influenced or coming under any pressure from anywhere. If this court finds that the investigation has not been carried out properly and the roles of the political activists have not been investigated fairly, the investigating officer will bear the brunt for his dereliction of duty. This court, therefore, hopes and trusts that the investigating officer will carry out the investigation in a proper and fair manner as expected from him being the officer of the police force.

Post on 02.07.2025. On the next date of posting of this writ petition, the investigating officer shall remain present before this court.
