ORDER

This Writ Petition is filed challenging the impugned order passed by the respondent in the application of the petitioner bearing Application No.TN-720220330398, dated 01.04.2024.

2. The legal heirship certificate was applied by the petitioner in respect of the death of one C.P.Subramaniam @ Subramani, who died on 19.12.1998. It seems that the death has been reported, but, so far, legal heirship certificate was never applied for. The respondents conducted an enquiry. Since they could not come to a conclusion as to who are the legal heirs, the application was rejected.

3. Once the death is reported, when an application is made for legal heirship certificate, it has to be determined as to who are the legal heirs.

Even if there is no other proof, the petitioner can be directed to file affidavits and he can also arrange for five affidavits of the persons known to the family which will include relatives and neighbours. On that basis, the report has to be forwarded to the respondent and ultimately, when there is no rival claim, each and every fact cannot be verified in view of the efflux of time. The best judgment has to be made on the basis of the available materials and the persons have to be declared as legal heirs.

4. In view thereof, this Writ Petition is disposed of on the following terms:-

(i) The impugned order, dated 01.04.2024 passed by the respondent shall stand set aside;

(ii) The petitioner shall appear before the respondent for further enquiry on 28.03.2025 and the respondent shall insist such documents/affidavits or relegate him to the concerned Revenue Inspector for further enquiry and the authorities shall make further enquiry and come to a conclusion by their best judgment as to who are all the legal heirs and

(v) There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
