ORDER

The Court notes that pursuant to its order the members of the respondent Union have rejoined their duties. Bearing in mind the nature of issues which the writ petition has raised, the Court calls upon the Union to file its reply on the writ petition within a period of four weeks.

The Court further requires a responsible office bearer of the Union to submit an undertaking before the competent authority of the petitioner Medical Institution of good behaviour and conduct on behalf of all of its members and that the functioning of the Institute and the extension of patient services and care shall not be disrupted in any manner. Let that undertaking be furnished within a period of 48 hours from today.

The Court notes that in respect of persons who were identified as being part of the unsavoury incident which occurred on 22 April 2022 in the Institute, the petitioner has issued a chargesheet against two of those persons and one of whom has also been suspended. The Court takes on board the statement of learned counsel for the petitioner who on instructions states that presently no further punitive disciplinary measures are proposed to be taken against the other persons who were identified in that incident. The statement so made is recorded and accepted. It is clarified that notwithstanding the statement noted above, disciplinary proceedings that may have already been initiated shall be proceeded with in accordance with law.

The Court also takes on board the statement made on behalf of the petitioner that a Committee shall be duly constituted with expedition to examine the grievances of the Union.

List on 29.07.2022.
