This is a petition seeking direction to SHO Police Station Sultanpuri to arrest the accused person in FIR No. 486/2022 dated 17.05.2022. The allegations in the FIR are that one accused Yash s/o Sanjay has committed rape on minor daughter of the petitioner as a result of which the minor girl has become pregnant.

Issue notice.

Ms Tiwari, learned APP who appears on advance notice accepts notice on behalf of the State.

Mr M.K. Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the minor child is wanting to terminate the pregnancy but the police is not cooperating in assisting the minor girl to terminate the pregnancy in a Government hospital where the petitioner and her minor daughter want to preserve the sample of the foetus for matching it with DNA profiling with the blood sample of the accused.

The SHO PS Sultanpuri is directed to provide all assistance to the petitioner and her minor daughter (victim) to get medical treatment for termination of pregnancy, if the victim so desires.

The SHO shall further ensure that the foetus sample is preserved for DNA profiling.

List on 22.06.2022 when the SHO and IO PS Sultanpuri shall be present.
