THIS WRIT PETITION (CIVIL) HAVING COME UP FOR ADMISSION ON 22.10.2026,
ALONG WITH WP(C)NO.33447/2026 AND CONNECTED CASES, THE COURT ON THE SAME DAY DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING:

JUDGMENT

(W.P(C) Nos. 33447, 34872, 35476, 35509, 35541, 35565 and 35656 of 2026)

I have heard S/Sri. K.P.Pradeep, Soniya S, U.Balagangadaran, K.C.Maneesh Charly, the learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri.Arjun Venugopal, the learned Central Government Counsel and Smt.Mintu Cherian, the learned Government Pleader.

2. These writ petitions have been filed by the respective petitioners, who are married couples, wherein either the husband or the wife is above the age limit prescribed under Section 21(g) of the Assisted Reproductive Technology (Regulation) Act, 2021 (for short, the 'Act'), contending that they have already commenced the procedure under the Act at a point of time when the age limit was not prescribed and hence, they are required to be permitted to avail the services in spite of the age restrictions under the statute. The petitioners also seek to rely on the judgment of the Punjab and Haryana High Court in Dr.Pushpa and Another v. Union of India and Others (CWP No.13085 of 2026) dated 19.05.2026, wherein, with reference to the principles laid down by the same High Court in Sarbjit Kaur v. State of Punjab, in the judgment dated 22.01.2026, has permitted the petitioners therein to continue the services upon furnishing an undertaking before the authorities. The learned counsel for the petitioners also seeks to point out that this Court has also considered the very same issue, following the dictum of the Punjab and Haryana High Court in W.P.(C) No.28787 of 2026 dated 23.09.2026.

3. However, Sri.Arjun Venugopal, the learned Central Government Counsel, would point out that the petitioners are not entitled to any reliefs in view of the Division Bench judgment of this Court in Union of India v. Nandhini K. [2025 KHC Online 2087], wherein, while upholding the prescription of age limit under Section 21(g) of the Act, the Division Bench has also reversed certain leniency shown to the petitioners therein, almost in similar situations. He would also seek to rely on the judgment of another Division Bench of this Court in W.A.No.701 of 2024 dated 18.07.2025, wherein the Division Bench has found that granting such permission vide interim orders would amount to overruling the statutory provisions, which cannot be permitted. Therefore, according to him, insofar as this Court has not referred to the judgment of the Division Bench as above, while rendering the judgment in W.P.(C) No.28787 of 2026, the petitioners are not entitled to any reliefs.

4. I have considered the rival contentions as well as the connected records.

5. It is true that the Division Bench of the Punjab and Haryana High Court has considered the entitlement with reference to the judgment in Sarbjit Kaur (supra), and this Court has also followed the same.

6. However, as rightly pointed out by the learned Central Government Counsel, insofar as the judgment of the Division Bench in Nandhini (supra) has not been relied on or pointed out while rendering the judgment in W.P.(C) No.28787 of 2026, this Court is of the opinion that merely because the Punjab and Haryana High Court has held that the services are to be extended upon furnishing an undertaking, similar treatment does not require to be extended to the petitioners.

7. Dr.Pradeep K.P., the learned counsel for one of the petitioners, in this regard, would also seek to rely on the judgment of the Apex Court in Vijaya Kumari S. v. Union of India [(2026) 2 SCC 96] to point out that the Apex Court has also extended such protection to the couple who are already continuing with the procedure earlier to the enactment of the statute. However, this Court notices that the afore judgment had been rendered with reference to the provisions of the Surrogacy (Regulation) Act, 2021, whereas the Division Bench of this Court in Nandhini (supra) has considered the issue specifically with reference to the provisions of the ART Act. When that be so, the reliance placed on the judgment in Vijayakumari (supra) cannot also be said to be correct even though the provisions may be pari materia.

8. In view of the afore, respectively following the judgment of the Division Bench in Nandhini (supra), this Court is of the opinion that these writ petitions are only to be dismissed. Therefore, these writ petitions would stand dismissed.
