Detailing the Event & Reasons Why Teams Should Participate

The annual moot court competition is an event to be noticed by law students. It is the perfect opportunity to display your legal skills in front of a panel of esteemed judges. The competition is open to teams of two law students from any accredited law school. Each team must prepare and submit an appellate brief and participate in oral arguments. The competition takes place over the course of two days, with the finals being held on the last day.

The winning team will receive a cash prize, and all participants will receive a certificate of participation. This prestigious event is a great way to gain real-world experience and build your resume. You will have the chance to meet and interact with fellow legal enthusiasts.

So mark your calendars and start preparing your best argument – we look forward to seeing you at the competition!

Description of Our Moot Court Competition

This moot court competition aims to provide law students with an opportunity to showcase their skills in front of a panel of esteemed judges. The competition will consist of two rounds: a preliminary round and a final round. In the preliminary round, each team will argue one side of a case before a panel of three judges. The teams that win their preliminary rounds will advance to the final round, where they will argue before a panel of judges. The winning team from the final round will be awarded. This is an excellent opportunity for law students to Showcase their advocacy skills and make valuable connections with legal community members. We encourage all interested law students to register for this exciting competition.
