36. Thus, it is submitted that on account of its goodwill and reputation, the “SAMCO” trademarks have become exclusively associated with the plaintiff and are well-recognized and popular amongst the industry and public.

37. In view of the plaintiff’s rights, the statutory and in common law, in its “SAMCO” trademarks and its goodwill and reputation therein, the plaintiff has exclusive right to use the said marks and no one else can be permitted to use the same or any other deceptively similar mark/name thereto in any manner whatsoever in relation to any services/business without the permission of the plaintiff.

38. It is submitted that the plaintiff’s front desk officer received telephonic enquires on 2nd August, 2024, from one Mr. Rakesh, referring to a legal notice received by his company, alleging copyright infringement. Upon specific request, the said Mr. Rakesh forwarded the impugned Email to the plaintiff. On a bare perusal of the Email, it was evident that the said legal notice had not been addressed by the plaintiff.

39. It is further submitted that the plaintiff was also informed by one Mr. Ishan S. Srivastava, Advocate, vide letter dated 2nd August, 2024, that the Commissioner of Police Thane, Maharashtra had received a letter dated 29th

July, 2024, from the plaintiff alleging extortion.

40. It is submitted that the said Email notices have neither been addressed by the plaintiff or its authorized representatives. Further, neither of the said legal notices/emails, have been authorized by the plaintiff. In fact, in response to the letter dated 2nd August, 2024, Dr. Shardul S. Shroff had issued a clarification vide his Email dated 6th August, 2024, that the impugned letter was not authored by the plaintiff.

41. Thus, it is submitted that the plaintiff strongly apprehends that the impugned legal notices/emails/letter are being addressed to seek illegal monetary gains by creating a mistaken impression that the impugned legal notices/emails/letter are being addressed by the plaintiff, at least, to damage the goodwill and reputation of the firm, as a whole.

42. Thus, it is submitted that defendant no. 1 is using the following Email IDs:

- a. lawdonaldwilliams378@gmail.com
- b. casdorhidell@gmail.com
- c. mellisamantik2@gmail.com
- d. fbvjohnmiller971@gmail.com

43. It is further submitted that the plaintiff has also filed criminal complaints seeking appropriate action against the offenders. Further, the plaintiff has also taken steps to include appropriate disclaimers on its website with respect to Emails being sent by unknown individuals.

44. Thus, it is submitted that in view of the defendant no. 1's acts of violation of the plaintiff's intellectual property rights, the plaintiff is left with no option but to approach this Court in order to protect the plaintiff, as also the public interest involved, in the present case.

45. Considering the submissions made before this Court, this Court is of the view that the plaintiff has established a prima facie case in its favour. The balance of convenience, also, lies in favour of the plaintiff and against the defendant. Irreparable loss shall be caused to the plaintiff, if interim directions are not passed in favour of the plaintiff.

46. Accordingly, it is directed, as follows:

46.1 An ad interim injunction is granted restraining the Defendant No. 1 (and such other individuals/entities which are discovered during the course of the proceedings to have been engaging in infringing the Plaintiff's exclusive rights), their proprietors, promoters, directors, partners, assigns, sister concern, affiliates, relatives, successors-in-interest, licensees, franchisees, representatives, servants, distributors, employees, agents etc. or anyone associated with them, from using the SAMCO Trade Marks and/or the name and photograph of the Plaintiff's Executive Chairman Dr. Shardul S. Shroff or any other members/partners/employees, singularly or in conjunction with any other word or monogram/logo as a trade mark, service mark, house mark, trade name, trading style, corporate name, website, domain name, messaging, group on any platform, e-mail address, social media handle or otherwise in any manner whatsoever, on or in relation to their business;

46.2 The defendant no. 2 is directed to:
