ORAL JUDGMENT

(PER: HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
MR. JUSTICE N. V. ANJARIA)

Heard learned party-in-person-the petitioner Mr. Rodda Veershetty.

In this petition styled as public interest petition, the prayer is made seeking a direction to the respondents, who are the Union of India and the State of Karnataka, to protect the life, property and other religious places of Hindus and other minority community people residing in Bangladesh.

NC: 2025:KHC:2842-DB
WP No. 33725 of 2024

The subject matter and the prayer are based on the news item dated 13.08.2024 in Kannada newspaper Prajavani titled "Communal unrest in Bangla". Not only the petition is peculiarly vague, it is thoroughly misconceived and cannot be entertained in the public interest jurisdiction.

The petition is summarily dismissed.
